FREE CRAFT ACTIVITIES AT HCCC DURING SPRING BREAK March 16 – 20, 2020, at Houston Center for Contemporary Craft

WHAT: HCCC Spring Break

During Spring Break, Houston Center for Contemporary Craft (HCCC) will offer hands-on making and other activities that encourage visitors, ages three and up, to explore craft and art making. HCCC, which is normally closed on Mondays and Tuesdays, will be open all week for this special event. Admission is free.

Each morning of the week, kids can experiment with different materials, tools, and techniques through hands-on activities. Families are invited to explore the current exhibitions, Escaping Earth: The Kinetic Work of Casey Curran and Drawn to the Work: Illustration and Craft in Conversation, by spending time looking at art, talking, and sketching in the galleries with experienced docents. Visitors will also have the opportunity to explore the resident artists' studios to gain insight into the inspirations and artistic processes of working artists.

About Houston Center for Contemporary Craft

Houston Center for Contemporary Craft (HCCC) is a nonprofit visual arts center dedicated to advancing education about the process, product, and history of craft. HCCC provides exhibition, studio, and garden spaces to support the work of local and national artists and serves as a resource for artists, educators and the community at large.

Located in the Museum District at 4848 Main Street, HCCC is open Wednesday through Saturday, 10 AM – 5 PM, and Sunday, 12 – 5 PM. Holidays: Closed Easter, July 4th, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, and New Year's Day. Admission is free. Free parking is available directly behind the facility, off Rosedale and Travis Street. HCCC is three blocks south of Wheeler Ave. MetroRail station on Main Street.

HCCC is supported by individual donors and members and funded in part by The Brown Foundation; Houston

Endowment, Inc.; the City of Houston through the Houston Arts Alliance; Texas Commission on the Arts; the National Endowment for the Arts, the Kinder Foundation; the Morgan Foundation; Windgate Charitable Foundation; and the Wortham Foundation. HCCC is a member of the Houston Museum District and the Midtown Arts District.
